Herbert Fletcher University

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Herbert Fletcher University (HFU) is a non profit online distance learning educational institution of the Inter-American Division^{[1]]2} of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.^{[3] It is a part of the Seventh-day Adventist education system,^{[4] the world's second largest Christian school system.^{[5][6]]7} It is named after the late Herbert L. Fletcher who was a church leader and educator within the Division for half a century. He was a past president of West Indies College (now Northern Caribbean University).}}

The University was founded in 2013.^{[8][9] In 2016 HFU received authorization of the Puerto Rico Education Council.^[citation needed] It also manages the Adventist Virtual Library (AVL).^{[10] Thousands of resources like magazine articles, books, newspaper, dissertations are available through the AVL. The students of the Adventist education system within the Inter-America Division have access to the AVL.}}

The University is sponsored by and affiliated with the Seventh-day Adventist Church.^{[11] It is situated within the building of the Puerto Rican Union Conference. The HFU offices would soon have a new building^{[12] located on the campus of the Antillean Adventist University, an institution operated by the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Puerto Rico. HFU offers graduate studies fully online including Master in Church Administration and Leadership, and Master in Online Instructional Design.}}
